George Teams Up with BB
Merchant Services to Champion Fair Prices for Australian Businesses

B BB MERCHANT SERVICES

George Gregan, former Wallabies captain and Australian rugby legend, has partnered with BB Merchant Services to promote fair pricing in the payments industry. This collaboration aims to support Australian businesses by ensuring transparency in merchant fees.

A rugby icon and business leader

Gregan, the 2nd most-capped Wallaby of all time with 139 test matches, is celebrated for his leadership on and off the field.

Beyond rugby, he co-founded the George Gregan Foundation, supporting families dealing with serious illnesses.

He has made significant strides in both philanthropy and business, including his role as Co-Owner of PTP & BAHE.

PTP focuses on delivering the highest quality fitness and recovery solutions, offering a total body conditioning experience to Australian and global markets.

Additionally, Gregan collaborates with executive teams worldwide, providing leadership and teamwork strategies.

He maintains a longstanding relationship with HSBC as a global ambassador, has offered expert television commentary and technical analysis for Fox Sport, as well as ITV for the past 3 world cups.

About BB Merchant Services

BB Merchant Services helps businesses benchmark and negotiate better merchant fee agreements, reducing costs and ensuring fair, competitive pricing worldwide, including in Australia.

With rising concerns over debit card surcharges, the decline of cash, and the cost of living crisis, transparent and fair pricing is more critical than ever.
